

I would like to invite you to a celebration of
All Beings Confluence
on Earth Day, April 22, 1 PM – 4 PM

All Beings Confluence started here in Saskatchewan in 2010.

It was inspired by Carolyn McDade
and her music for the CD, Widening Embrace.

Madeleine LePage, Fenella Temmerman, Shannon Carson
and myself thought it would be “a good idea” to create a few free-hanging sheer panels each representing a single living Being (a lady bug, a tree, a bird, etc.).

They were hung in the foyer of the Banff Centre of the Arts
so that the singers could walk through the Beings
and take their energy with them into the recording studio.

It is now a collection of 300+ which have travelled around the world and been seen by over 20,000 people.

The Saskatchewan part of this collection is now installed
at the Last Mountain Lake Cultural Centre in Regina Beach and will be there until April 30th.

Come and celebrate
who we are together!
on Earth Day, April 22, 1 PM – 4 PM

I hope to see you there.
